"One of the early Methodist preachers was "withering." He wrote to John Wesley about it, and Wesley's response has become a classic quote in our tradition: "O begin! Fix some part of every day for private exercises. You may acquire the taste which you have not: what is tedious at first will afterward be pleasant. Whether you like it or not, read and pray daily. It is for your life; there is no other way: else you will be a trifler all your day."
